

Illinois Plumbing Code
77 Ill. Adm. Code 890

Proposed Amendment Summary

This rulemaking addresses public health concerns associated with waterborne opportunistic pathogens (such as Legionella) and hazardous substances (such as lead) in potable water systems and introduces national standards for harvested water systems. The proposed rulemaking includes revisions to language on the installation of dialysis machines to reduce potential cross contamination.

Any questions regarding this rulemaking can be addressed to:

Erin Conley
Division of Legal Services
Illinois Department of Public Health
535 W. Jefferson St., 5th floor
Springfield, Illinois 62761

217/782-2043
e-mail: dph.rules@illinois.gov