Illinois Energy Conservation Advisory Council Vacancy Notice Local Code Official

CDB is seeking to fill a vacancy of the Illinois Energy Conservation Advisory Council. The position is for a person representing local code officials. The composition of the Council is defined in 71 Illinois Administrative Code 600.

The Illinois Energy Conservation Code is based on the International Energy Conservation Code. The purpose of the Council is to recommend Illinois specific modifications to the International Energy Conservation Code and assist with the development of the Illinois Stretch Code.

The nominations for appointees must come from organizations that represent local code officials and cannot come from individuals. Each nominee should be an active code official and have experience with the Illinois Energy Conservation Code.

To submit a nomination, please send the following information to Lisa Hennigh at Lisa.Hennigh@Illinois.gov.

1. A letter from an organization representing local code officials nominating an individual for this position. The letter should include information about the individual and why the organization feels they are a qualified candidate.
2. A resume for the nominee.
3. A letter from the nominee explaining why they would like to be appointed to the Council and what experience/knowledge they have which makes them a good candidate.

CDB will accept submittals through December 31, 2022. All submittals will be reviewed and the CDB Executive Director will determine the appointee based on the qualifications of the candidates.

This is a non-paid position, but council members shall be reimbursed for reasonable travel expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.
